Thanks Pete. This is very helpful. And thanks for the quick work last night on the homeless guy who attacked the actress.

Best,
Leron

Now I remember. We will send you some bullet points.

Sorry, I should have provide more info. We were talking about what local businesses can do to deal with the significant increase in homelessness within the commercial district. The thought was to have LAPD share best practices of which you are aware that other businesses are using to deal with these issues that businesses might be able to adapt to their own needs. Let me know if that is clear enough.

Best,
Leron

Leron,

Refresh my memory on specifically which best practices you are inquiring about?

Hi Pete,

Hey, just wanted to follow up on the Economic Development Committee meeting we had last month. You had offered to put together a list of "best practices" that we could share with the business community. Are you still able to provide that list for us? If so, when might you be able to get it to us? We have another meeting of the committee next Tuesday, Oct. 17th, if you are able to do so.

Thanks,

Leron
